

HOLT'S Shoe Store Falls City, Neb.

SHOES for Men,
Women and Children

I would be pleased to have you call to see our Shoe Styles

Would also like add your name
to our list of customers.

Children's Shoes a Specialty.

Warm Lined Shoes for Old Folks.

Rubbers and Overshoes of Kinds.

Want to Phone?

Call 23.

Correspondence

News of the County as Told by
Our Special Correspondents

Verdon.

Nellie Weaver was in Falls City Wednesday.

Fay Simmons and wife went to Omaha Sunday.

Howard Conover is clerking in a dry goods store on Saturdays.

May Johnson is learning dress making of Mrs. Lippold in Falls City.

Max Georgia and wife of Dawson were over Monday trading with our millers.

D. M. Griffith and wife were visiting in Falls City the latter part of last week.

Quimby Hossack, Jacob Greenwald and Chas. Hofer came up from Falls City Sunday evening.

Camma Hall left for Peru on Wednesday to attend the normal class the remainder of the term.

Mrs. Pearl Sloan and little son are spending this week with John Hossack and family in Falls City.

C. M. Heinzelman returned from Bethany, Mo., Thursday. He saw some fine country and enjoyed the trip.

Carl Jörn came up from Oklahoma last Saturday. He will probably stay until June when he expects to be in school again.

Jesse Griffiths was called home from Crete where he has been attending school by the death of his grandfather, Wm. Williams.

Will Leslie and family made a farewell visit to his brother in Salem Saturday and Sunday and he leaves on April 2nd for Caldwell, Idaho.

Will Hossack spent last week with his many friends in Verdon and Stella returning the first of this week to his home in Falls City. From there he goes to Omaha.

The Odd Fellows organized a lodge in Verdon on Monday night and a number came up from Falls City and with them the drill team. They assisted Grand Master C. H. Ellis in organizing to the satisfaction of all present.

Harry and Roy Lum are visiting folks at home for a short time. This is their second year at Crete and it is a great treat for them to come home on a vacation. They look hale and hearty and their friends are glad to welcome them home.

Barada.

Dr. Elder was in St. Derooin the last of the week.

Elmer Butler made a business trip to Falls City Monday.

Wesley Smith and son James were in Falls City Monday.

Lucy Smith is entertaining Miss Tompkins of Guide Rock.

Tom Smith and wife saw "Too Proud too Beg" at the Gehling.

Mrs. A. Rambeau was the guest of Falls City friends Monday.

Wm. Nutter and family spent Sunday at the home of Wesley Smith.

Judge Scott and wife of Falls City visited their daughter Eva Sunday.

Mary Arnold of Kansas City is visiting at the home of Jude Arnold this week.

C. F. Reavis and Ed Faloan of Falls City were professional callers her Monday.

Henry Kuker and family were visitors at the home of grandpa Seimerings Monday.

A number of men have been dragging the roads, which makes a decided improvement and for which they deserve much praise.

Mary Shulenberg was a pleasant caller at the home of Charles Steinbrink Friday.

Samuel Vassar and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a son at their home last week.

Daisy Arnold and Mrs. Mack were pleasant callers at the home of Mrs. J. C. Shulenberg, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. J. C. Shulenberg and daughter Emma were visiting relatives at Falls City Friday and Saturday of last week.

Williamsville.

Mr. Wissinger was in Barada.

Johny Nutzman is on the sick list.

Frank Butler and wife spent Sunday with I. A. Dunn.

The Williamsville band boys met to practice at Mr. C. Wick.

Mr. Wissinger and family spent Sunday at the Michels home.

G. W. and E. Duerfeldt and Henry Luhn shipped cattle Monday.

Mrs. R. J. Dunn entertained her friends at a carpet rag bee Thursday and Friday.

The farmers of Williamsville were very busy breaking stalks Saturday morning on account of the freeze.

The canning factory agent called on several farmers last week and contracted with them to raise tomatoes for them this season.

Jesse Maurer and wife who have been visiting with their daughter Mrs. Ira Dunn will leave the 29 for Binford North Dakota where they will spend a few days with their son before returning home at Jameston.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Ralph Clark of Stella spent Sunday in this city.

C. F. Reavis went to Burchard Tuesday afternoon.

F. W. Cleveland was in Reserve on business Monday.

Prof. Wm. Harnack was in Salem on business Monday.

J. J. Dvorak of Humboldt made a business trip to this city Saturday.

Will Jenne is home for a few days rest from his duties as traveling salesman.

Mrs. J. M. Foster who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Parsell left Saturday for her home in Chicago.

Mrs. J. F. Whetstine has returned from an extended visit with her parents at Washington, Kansas.

Henry Hahn, one of Richardson county's prosperous farmers has moved to town and is now a reader of The Tribune.

Chas. Hoffman who has been laid up with a badly sprained ankle is again able to attend business at his clothing store.

But one marriage license was issued this week and that was to John C. Schneider and Leona May Thacker, both of Preston.

Remember that our ring offer to the girls and watch offer to the boys still holds good. Write us for particulars and go to work and earn one of these valuable presents.

Mr. McDowell of Salem precinct made this office a pleasant call Wednesday evening. He has been appointed deputy assessor in his precinct and will commence work April 1st.

J. C. Schneider has removed to Pawnee City and will make that place his home in the future. He will keep in touch with Falls City people and events through the medium of The Tribune.

Martin Kraph of Horton, Kas., assistant superintendent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., of New York was in town this week with a view to establishing an agency of this company here.

Tom Glines, manager of Fred Beaulieu's news emporium has been wielding the paint brush this week with good effect and the appearance of the interior of the aforesaid emporium has been greatly improved.

Miss Melia Rieschick, who is visiting in Pennsylvania, had the misfortune recently to fall and sprain her ankle so severely as to cause her to be laid up for some time, but she has so far recovered as to be able to be around. She intends to visit Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Chicago and other points before her return.

Art Pottery

In order to better meet the demands of our customers we have added to our stock a complete assortment of

Vases and Tankards

We have exercised much care in buying only that which would afford our customers entire satisfaction and we place this

Art Pottery

before our patrons with the assurance that for Beauty of Design, Excellence of Finish and Lowness of cost

It Is Unexcelled

The wide range of prices makes them very desirable gifts for all occasions.

N. B.—Our line of Spring jewelry is complete and up-to-date.

SEE DISPLAY IN WINDOW

A. E. JAQUET

"The Old Reliable" Jeweler